Day 2 : Borjomi Park & Rabati Castle

The most remarkable virtues of Borjomi are its striking nature and unique mineral waters. One of the best places to experience this is the "Mineral Water Park" of Borjomi. The park itself dates back to the 1850s and is an attractive destination all throughout the year. Here you can taste the natural Borjomi mineral water and relax in a beautiful environment. Try riding the cable car up to the Ferris wheel at the top of the park.

- Borjomi Central Park
- Rabati Castle

The Rabati castle was established in the 9th century by Guaram Mampal, son of the King of Tao. From the 13th to the end of 14th centuries it was the capital city of Samtskhe-Saatabago, ruled by the Georgian princely (mtavari) family and a ruling dynasty of the Principality of Samtskhe, the House of Jaqeli.

Day 3 : TBILISI and Mtskheta Tour

Tbilisi is the capital and the largest city of Georgia, lying on the banks of the Kura River. The history of Tbilisi throws back to 5th century, when King Vakhtang Gorgasali ordered to build a city. The city's name wasn't incidental word "Tbili" in Georgian means warm. The combination of original architecture and natural beauty gives the city inimitable charm and color
